SCARLETT'S
COMMERCIAL SCHOOL
FOR YOUNG MEN,

No. 214 ESMERALDA.

This School, conducted on the plan by which similar institutions have become celebrated throughout the United States for the completeness of their course of instruction and the efficiency of their Graduates, affords to young men an excellent opportunity to gain in a few months as thorough a knowledge of the principles and practice of Book-keeping by Double Entry, as could be acquired in the Counting-house in the course of as many years. The Pupil is taught to open, carry on, and close books representing wholesale, retail, individual, partnership, and compound company business, manufacturing, bank, and private banking, steamboating, railroading, exporting and importing, either on account of the firm, commission, or joint speculation.

The system combines all the advantages of private instruction, each pupil being entirely independent of his fellow students in the prosecution of his studies, and may progress as rapidly as capacity and previous attainments will admit.

Hours—From Ten to Three; and in the evening from Half-past Seven to Nine.

Application for admission should be made to Mr. Scarlett, at No. 262 Calle San Martin; or at the Rooms.

References—Dr. William Rawson, Mr. Joshua Negrotto, Mr. W. Wheelwright, Mr. Thomas Armstrong, Mr. J. F. Sassenberg, Mr. Edward Hopkins.

SARSAPARILLIAN
HIDDEN VIRTUES BROUGHT TO LIGHT.

For 300 years the curative properties of Sarsaparilla have lain dormant in a part of the root, that have escaped the notice of the chemists, by the new process recently discovered by Dr. Radway in extracting the medicinal properties from vegetable substances that enter into the composition of Radway's Renovating Resolvent, Sarsaparillian, the crystalline principle of Sarsaparilla was found to possess the true virtues ascribed to this root, obtained, as it now is, under Dr. Radway's new process, rescues, by its wonderful curative power over all forms of Chronic, Skin, Scrofulous, and impured secondary diseases, the reputation of Sarsaparilla from the unfavorable opinion of the medical faculty.

Sarsaparillian ——Sarsaparillian, associated with other ingredients of extraordinary curative properties, enters into the composition of Radway's Renovating Resolvent.

And this Remedy may now be considered as the most effectual and quick Curative Remedy in all Chronic, Glandular, Skin, Kidney, Bladder, and Urinary diseases. In diseases of the Lungs, Bronchi, Throat, and Liver, it affords immediate assistance. It communicates its curative powers through the blood, sweat, and urine. The moment it is swallowed it commences its work of purification and the work of expulsion of corrupt humors from the blood. It repairs the waste of the body with sound and healthy material, and secures functional harmony of each depraved organ in the natural secretion of its proper constituents. In cases where there is difficulty in the Kidneys and Diabetes, Gravel, Catarrh, or Irritation of the Bladder, Bright's Disease is present, this remedy will give immediate relief and secure a cure.

Question—Dr. A——t asks—"Will your Sarsaparillian Resolvent make cure of uncured secondary disease, and restore the vigor of life to those unfortunates who by self-abuse or otherwise are suffering a waste of the life fluid?"

Answer—The purifying, strengthening, and reparative properties of this remedy is truly wonderful. In 1849-50, when this remedy was first introduced it made extraordinary cures of persons who were treated unsuccessfully on the Parisian plan, both in Europe and in this country, by vapor baths of Mercury, Arsenic, Sulphur, and Iodine, Potash, Mercury, in several forms, and by injunctions, which only suppressed or stifled the disease, and persons cured by the Resolvent made under the old process, afflicted with Spermatorrhœa, Weakening Discharges, &c., threatening impotency, have since married, and have children of from five to fifteen years now living, without a sign of inherited disease. This we consider good evidence of its thorough curative and fruitful efficacy!—(See page 14 of 'False and True,' Dr. Radway's new medical book, article headed, 'Ricord v. Radway.')

If this remedy, prepared under the old process possess such powerful curative properties, its failure now is improbable and almost impossible.

In Chronic Diseases, Ulcers, Tumors, Fever, Sores, &c., a cure is sure to follow its use. In all diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, Urethra, and where the Urine deposits sediments, either of a brick dust colour, gravel or Albumen, white shreds at stringy matter; a few doses will change these signs of terror to its natural condition. Sarsaparillian Resolvent is a far better remedy for Kidney difficulties than Buchu. See that each bottle of Radway's Resolvent has the word "Sarsaparillian" on the label.

BEAUIFY THE HAIR.
NO MORE DANDRUF.

AFTER two years experience of the wonderful merits of this water, I can now confidently recommend it to the enlightened public of Buenos Ayres as the first preservative of fine hair and the most potent stimulant yet invented. It is more cleanly than oil or pomade, and those blessed with good hair (almost as rare and valuable as good brains) will find it a powerful preservative. The fertilizing influences of the fluid are such that it will raise hairs on the smoothest surface, as several of the most respectable residents of this can attest. For want of room I refrain from giving their names here, but they are to be seen in alphabetical order, with respective addresses at my office, where the water with full instructions can be had—

LOPEZ JORDAN'S PROCLAMATION.

IN giving to our readers a free translation of Lopez Jordan's proclamation to the Santa Fecinos, we cannot resist offering a few remarks.

Rebel leaders in South America are generally as proficient at the sword as with the pen. To make a cavalry charge or dictate a proclamation inciting the people to revolt, comes as easy to the South American 'caudillos' as if they were 'to the manner born'. The sword and the pen are allies in every revolt that has afflicted poor South America; frequently the sword outdoes the pen, and 'vice versa'; but any Argentine who claims for his country a higher civilisation than the 'rotten monarchies' of Europe can certainly back Lopez Jordan even against a Kossuth for soul-stirring, brain-twirling proclamations.

Patriotism, affection and fear are invoked by the rebel leader in one and the same breath; even the license of the poet is pressed into the service of the rebellion, and what the Americans very aptly term 'bunkum' is preached to every Gaucho of the Pampa as the generous effusion of a would-be patriot.

Lopez Jordan may be everything that his friends and followers choose to call him, but it must never be forgotten that he avows himself an assassin and a rebel. His high sounding, bombastic proclamation is written in tears and blood, and although he appeals to the Santa Fecinos to fight for Entre Rios, he never forgets the 'Don Yo', and asks them to fight for himself also.

The cool effrontery of a man chased from piller to post by the hand of justice, in publishing this frothy proclamation, shows the the very low ebb of our public morality. The crime of Lopez Jordan can be traced to the prisons of Buenos Ayres; the flexibility of our criminal system, the constant escape of assassins, and the utter impossibility of bringing a murderer to execution, are evils of deep root, and which have indirectly brought upon us this Entre Riano war. Jordan fights with a halter round his neck, he has admitted his participation in the murder of General Urquiza, and therefore has written his own sentence, but he confessed to his crime under the belief that no greater attention would be paid to the murder of Gen. Urquiza than to the assassination of the Italian Consul in the streets of Buenos Ayres; he thought that the affair would blow over in a few days and nothing more be thought of it—but he has found out his mistake, and the country is in arms to-day to hunt him down and bring him to justice, not to fight a province or subjugate a people.

The following is the proclamation of the murderer of General Urquiza to the people of Santa Fé:—

PROCLAMATION

Santa Fecinos:—At last the tide of your own consciences has burst the bounds which the enemies of your sovereignty had raised up against your loyalty and allegiance. The shouts for liberty and vengeance, which have echoed through the camps of Entre Rios, have at last reached your pasturages and your hall-doors, touching a generous and saving chord in your oppressed hearts.

Audacious sons of Lopez! The glories and oaths of the past, the offences of the present, and the hazardous promises of the future, which is beginning to clear, join us in the enduring bond of companionship and brotherhood. My word and the Entre Riano flag are now amongst you, and I have here my first proof. If you want ten thousand more soldiers you must have them, and myself along with them.

Sons of Santa Fe! The splendid flag I send you goes on triumphant; it has frightened the invaders just the same as your own. Both should win together or be buried amongst the ashes of our homes. Let us swear to uphold them, before God and the country, on the blades of our drawn swords!

Beloved Brothers—Do you know your tyrants—those who wanted to subjugate the soil of Entre Rios, which is your soil and that of every Argentine? Do you know who caused the war that is devouring us, and which is making brothers fight against brothers? Vengeance then! Let slaves alone serve despots. The future will only grant its gifts to the renowned heroes who know how to achieve them.

For Entre Rios and FOR ME, I swear your all to sacrifice yourselves for the happiness of Santa Fe.

Your loyal and affectionate friend,
RICHARD LOPEZ JORDAN.

Headquarters, banks of the River Paraná, Dec. 14, 1870,
Itinerant Printing Office of the Army.

THE NEW CIVIL CODE.

The new Civil Code came into operation as the supreme law of the land on the first day of the current year. It is essential that our readers should know something of a book of such high importance, and doubly necessary the press should notice the work, sketching its contents, and, if possible, touching on the changes which it works in our laws, since but a very limited number of copies have been put in circulation, and only the judges and a few of the principal lawyers have been able to obtain the book. Let our readers not suppose, however, that we are about to give them a dry chapter on Argentine law: the subject, if anything, is more tedious for us than the reader; but we propose to give, as far as possible, a succint sketch of the Code, and recommend our readers to preserve the papers in which these articles appear, as, if of no higher value, they will always be a more comprehensive index of the work than the book itself supplies.

Chapter first defines the power of the law. Foreigners, natives and travellers are alike subject. The laws of the Republic come into operation the day following their publication in the capital-city of the Republic or Province, and in the country districts eight days after their promulgation in the cities. No laws can have a retroactive effect, nor destroy rights already acquired. All acts, contracts or rights acquired beyond the domicile of the owner obey the law of the place where contracted or acquired; but as regards properties in this country, have effect only so far as they conform with the laws of this country. This provision, in a country such as this, daily peopled by foreigners, is of great importance.

All real estate properties in the Republic, and all rights of transfer, inheritance and possession of same are alone subject to the code, and title to real estate can only be acquired, held or lost according to same.

Chattels that have a permanent locality, and that are held without the intention of removal obey the laws of the place in which they are situated; other chattels and goods brought for sale or transhipment are subject to the laws of the domicile of the owner. This article is important, but we have not now time to comment on it, as the subsequent and concluding articles of this chapter are of still greater importance.

No foreign laws can have application save where the interested party invokes them and proves their existence; save, of course, laws rendered obligatory in the Republic by virtue of treaty.

Foreign laws shall be null in the following cases:—

When they conflict with the civil or criminal laws of the Republic, the State religion, religious liberty, and moral customs.

When their application is incompatible with the spirit of this code.

When establishing mere privilege.

When the provisions of this code are more favorable for the validity of rights or acts.

There is a provision in this chapter abrogating the power, of what is known in England as common law, and explicitly providing that only what is mentioned, expressed and set down in the code shall be regarded as law.

Perhaps there are few, save lawyers, who thoroughly understand the sweeping changes which this code effects. The laws in this country, if we except the recent Codigo de Comercio, are all subservient to the edicts of Bilbao and the statutes of Ferdinand and Isabel. To jump from such musty records into the pages of a modernized code, drawn up, copied and sucked from all the civil codes of the present day is a change too violent to be revered. Reforms such as the code aims at take years to effect, and we much dread that the new code will tend more to increase litigation than to simplify the laws or strengthen the rights of the people.

It was stated in some quarters yesterday that the well known Luengo had invaded the province of Cordoba with three or four hundred marauders. But few believed this news; in any case the invaders are certain to receive the warmest of receptions.

"THE SQUARE AND COMPASS."

The New Year has brought us a new English colleague under the above heading, which is to be the organ of Masonic news and literature, appearing 3 times a month. It is smaller than the STANDARD, and very tastefully got up on fine toned paper. There are numerous letters of congratulation and a well-written prospectus by the Editor from which we extract the following paragraphs:—

"We propose to make our paper the medium for keeping the Order informed of the progress and proceedings of all the lodges in South America, and of inter-communication between them; of reporting all matters of interest that may transpire in Europe or America in connection with Masonry; and publishing original articles and correspondence on Masonic topics. We shall give precedence to the advertisements and announcements of brother masons, and generally devote ourselves to the advancement and furtherance of the craft and its followers. At the same time we shall not neglect those general items of news of the day which may interest our readers and serve to make our organ a valuable and interesting addition to the tables of the drawing-room, the study, and the counting-house.

"Opposed as our principles are to envy, hatred, malice, and all uncharitableness, we shall carefully abstain from attacks on creed, nationality, or established society. We shall wage no paper war with other claimants for public favor, and as we ourselves strive to live in charity with all men, we shall succeed, we hope, in provoking no invidious opposition or animosity from others."

The Square and Compass is the third English paper in this city, and we understand there are two more to appear this week or next. The English reading public will soon have an 'embarras de richesses" in this respect, but it is a sign of the times we hail with heartfelt pleasure. "Messieurs les Anglais en avant!"

WEST COAST MAILS.

ARRIVAL OF THE CALDERA,

The Caldera was delayed two days in the Straits by bad weather and had further to stop at Punta Arenas for coals. Her dates are to the 14th ult.

The Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States, Mr. J. P. Root, was formally received by H. E. the President of the Republic, on the 2nd inst.

The last steamer brought the news of the sudden death, in New York, of General Vickers, ex-secretary of the United States legation to this country. General Vickers was married to Señorita Amalia Valdivieso, of Santiago, sister to the wife of General Kilpatrick.

The Union Church Sabbath Schools enjoyed their usual annual picnic on the 8th inst. About four hundred persons were on the ground. The scholars and their family friends were borne to the country in carts drawn by oxen; of these twenty were in requisition.

The Record says: In Talca the dissenters have purchased land and enclosed it for a cemetery; at the cost of upwards of a thousand dollars. The intention is to erect a chapel within the enclosure. As yet only one interment has taken place there.

The Vice-Consul of the Argentine Republic at Santa Rosa, announces that all the goods imported into that country must be accompanied by the corresponding manifest, vised by the consul-general.

The Sufrajio says a famous bandit named Perez, who, in union with the ultra-cordillera Indians, has been for a long time past in the habit of robbing large numbers of cattle, is at a place called Teno, near Curico, and that he is making preparations on a grand scale for a raid on the neighboring estates. No effort appears to be made by the authorities to apprehend Perez and his companions, or to break up the gang.

The famous criminals Pasten, Farias and Pavez, who it will be remembered, in company with the Italian bandit Ferrari, assassinated a Señor Bravo and several other persons on the cordillera, upwards of a year ago, effected their escape from San Felipe gaol on Sunday night last.

Respecting the Jamaica cable the Panama Star says.—The following has been received from Mr. James Gall, Kingston, Jamaica:

"No word of the Cable Expedition as yet, and it is feared the late bad weather had caused them to cut Cable, buoy it, and run. When weather is calm it will take some time to grapple for it. Of course this is mere conjecture, for we know nothing. We heard by Californian, which met them 225 miles from Aspinwall; they were paying out at a rate of 5 miles per hour, and all was going on well.

"P.S.—Her Majesty's steamer Vestal arrived at Port Royal, November 4th, reporting that the Cable had been lost, having unmoored itself from port, but that it had been picked up three days after and secured. This is how I read the telegram by flags, but it was so badly telegraphed, I would not like to be responsible for correctness of information. We are looking every moment for the Dacia to coal and proceed to sea again."

Messrs. Gonzalez & Co. have signed a contract with the Municipality for paving and mending several leading streets. We commend Saint Martin street to the attention of the firm.

MONTEVIDEO.

Saturday.

There are conflicting accounts as to the movements of the Blancos; some of them fell back on San Jose, where they were received with the usual bell-ringing and rockets: others turned up in great strength at Florida, and to-day it is rumoured that Aparicio with the wreck of his army, supposed to number 1,000 men, was last seen making for Durazno. Gen. Borjes is believed to be gone in pursuit, and Goyo Suarez was to strike his tents yesterday and follow with all his army. Col. Fidelis is making a diversion towards Tacuarembó.

The body of Major Rodriguez, a Spaniard by birth, who fought under Aparicio, was brought in from the battle-field yesterday and interred by his friends. Captain Anavitarte, another Blanco officer, who was struck in the chest with a cannon ball, died on Thursday while being conveyed into town: he was a promising young man, much esteemed by everybody, having served for some years as commissary aboard the Salteña company's steamers.

It is now stated that the massacre at Sauce amounted to 1400 between Colorados and Blancos, both parties fighting with incredible ferocity; this accounts for the few prisoners taken, and the number of killed far exceeding that of wounded.

Major Felicio died yesterday of his wounds. Major Bergara has 4 wounded officers in his house, whom he attends to in person. Major Feliciano Baz died in the Caridad Hospital: he was of Brazilian parentage, and had served under the Oriental flag since before the Paraguayan war: he was struck in the stomach by a cannon ball at the recent battle, commanding the Tacuarembó division.

The Government papers again report Bastarrica killed (the 3rd time) and Muñiz and Lucas Moreno wounded.

Aparicio's Privy Council do not seem to have fled the country as was stated, but have arrived safe and sound at Florida: it is, however, likely that they will go further north before again establishing themselves as a constituted Government. The people of Union are somewhat alarmed by the Montevidean Government resolving to throw up fortifications on the Cerrito. It is said that Aparicio wanted to shoot Lucas Moreno for having kept his men inactive during the battle, and that it was Muñiz who saved his life. It is impossible to attach the least credence to these stories.

Another personal rencontre occurred last night between two lads named Maeso and Casalla, the latter shooting the former through the arm. D. Justo Maeso senr. was formerly Chief of the Statistical department of B. Ayres.

The President has issued a proclamation, prolonging the amnesty for 30 days longer. His Excellency addressed a note to the Permanent Committee of the Legislature asking its approval of same, but the latter replied that only the Chambers in Session could do so.

It is stated that a difficulty occurred the other day between the Editor of the Siglo and the Minister of War; the former drew a revolver, the latter a horse-whip, but no one was hurt.

The Caldera has just come in from the West Coast, having been detained by bad weather in the Straits.

Three cargoes of lumber from Montreal. An emigrant ship from Galicia with 200 passengers. Helvetia from Hamburg to Rosario.

Gone is the Olden Year,
Fall'n away as a leaf,
Sprinkle upon his bier
Tears, of two nations' grief:
Maidens of sunny France,
Bear ye the cypress bough;
Wives, where the Rhine waves glance,
What are their laurels now?
Sires and sons so brave
Pride of their 'Fatherland,'
Lie in the lonely grave
Slain by the Gallic hand.
Boast as the victor may
Laurels won't hide the tear
Shed on the New Year's day
For thy brave dead Old Year,
Land of the mighty fled,
Ever unconquered France!
Fate droops your lofty head:
Fortune, your flashing lance:
Fling down the brand of strife
Herald of woe and tear
Harken! the maid, the wife,
Clamour for peace, New Year!
Mourning the vacant seat,
Where, in thy youth, Old Year,
Rang out those accents sweet
Hushed in the soldier's bier,
Hushed in the hero's tomb
Where he so stilly lies.
Resting within thy womb,
Fair Land, he never dies,
Living, whilst History's page
The true and brave reverses,
Bearing from age to age
Names that outlive all years!
Old Year, farewell—farewell!
Pleasure, and Woe, and Pain,
Ring out your parting knell,
Ring in the New Year's reign,
Fly to the shadow land,
Bearing your load of fear;
There with the vanished stand
Ghost-like, thou dead Old Year!
Welcome the Young Year in
Ringing the bells of joy;
Sorrow, and War, and Sin,
Fly from the blooming boy,
Melts on his sunny way
Even the dewy tear,
Hope takes his hand to-day
Smiling on the New Year!

By our West Coast exchanges we find that an Athletic Club is about being started by the English community at Valparaiso. Mr. Hatton Campbell is the presiding genius of the movement to which, on the part of the British Athletes of the River Plate we wish every success.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The great anxiety manifested last week respecting the safety of the Pacific steamer Caldera was set at rest on Sunday, that vessel having arrived at Montevideo on the morning of Saturday, sailing for Rio Janeiro at 6 p.m. on the same evening. The Caldera met with the worst possible weather on her voyage round. She was for two days making fruitless attempts to enter the Straits of Magellan, so violent was the head wind, with tremendous cross seas. She was also detained at Sandy Point through her supply of coal running short. The coal found at this place is very bad, and its feeble power contributed still further to delay her arrival at Montevideo.

The Tycho Brahe, with Liverpool dates to the last day of November, arrived at Montevideo on Sunday, and is expected in this port to-day or to-morrow. The Ariadne, of the Antwerp mail line, is expected hourly at Montevideo. Mr. Butcher, manager of the line, comes up from Rio in this vessel.

The Royal mail steamer La Plata, from Southampton on the 9th ult., is expected to arrive at Montevideo on Sunday next. She brings telegraphic news from Lisbon to the 13th ult.

Messrs. Scott Yarrow & Co., agents in the River Plate for the Pacific line of steamers, announce that the John Elder, a magnificent new vessel, is also due on the 8th inst. from Liverpool. This steamer will bring dates to the 19th Dec. from Lisbon.

The English papers speak of a new Bullet Machine worked by steam, lately brought under the notice of our War Office by Mr Bessemer of steel making celebrity. This formidable engine is made on exactly the same principle as a fire engine, the bullets being discharged from a hose, which is worked by the artillerymen in identically the same manner as a fireman discharges water on a burning building. The result expected from this new implement of destruction will, if realized, consign the famous 'mitrailleuses' to the company of 'Brown Bess' for evermore.

The ancient church of Pilar in Cordoba is tumbling into ruins, and our contemporaries of that city appeal to the public to initiate a subscription for its repair. The sacred edifice is in a dangerous state, though some temporary measures were lately resorted to to prop it up.

Our Chilian advices bring the not altogether unexpected intelligence that the men who about a year ago murdered Sr. Bravo and his peons in the Cordillera have been allowed to escape from prison. A clue to this fresh failure of justice may be found in the fact that the question of their extradition to this country was very properly raised and pressed by Mr. Sarmiento's government. It is painfully apparent that all South American criminal systems are tainted with an indifference to the sacredness of human life, which nothing as yet tried can eradicate.

We have just received news from Paysandu, under date of New Year's Day, morning, that a detachment of 100 infantry had arrived from Montevideo, under command of Captain Stefanelli, who, through the special introduction of Garibaldi to Batlle, has lately received a captain's commission in the Oriental army.

We were favoured on Sunday morning with a copy of a new English colleague, The Square and Compass. We salute the editor, Mr. Goldman, and wish him success. The 'specialité' of the new organ is first rate paper and irreproachable printing. We hold in reserve a host of salutations and good wishes, as we understand that several new papers edited in our mother tongue will shortly make their appearance. We have heard that the next on the list is an evening paper, to be followed by a weekly of gigantic dimensions. We say welcome to all.

Betting on the next news from Europe is going on actively in the wool plazas. The odds have 'evened' considerably since last advices. We warn the 'chapelliers' to make ready for the expected crisis, "Who's your hatter?" will be the most alarming question of next week—for the losers.

There is very little news from Rosario. The late mutiny seems to have been a miserable affair, transformed by the scared telegraphic reports of amateur correspondents into most alarming shape. The serenos, anxious, as they always are between their naps, to see the most of any game, remained passive lookers-on; hence the escape of the mutineers and Sr. Ramayo, who levanted from prison en chemise, (another account puts 'calzoncillos' on the fugitive), The authorities, by way of punishment, kept the 'Charlies' confined all next day; and a local paper says they had nothing to eat during that time. Chiarini's circus, the band in the plaza, and the other amusements were in no wise interrupted during the scare.

Mr. John Davidson, of Santa Domingo, entertained a number of friends on New Year's Day at his hospitable residence. The Old Year was bowed out and the New Year in in right jovial fashion, which recalled the dear old country to the minds of all present.

We understand that Mr. Lacroze intends altering the route of his tramway through Calle Defensa; the line will stop at Barracas, instead of going on to the Boca, as at first intended.

The Chevalier Crauwell, whose letters from the battle-field of Sedan were read with so much interest by the public of this city, is expected to return to the Plate very shortly.

The mustering of the National Guards has commenced in many partidos. Evasion is, of course, being extensively attempted, and a great deal of food for powder has mysteriously disappeared since the publication of the decree ordering the levy.

We publish in this issue the text of Lopez Jordan's proclamation to the Santafecinos, and the audacious Sons of Lopez.' Anything more ridiculous than this manifesto it is impossible to conceive. Even the unlettered gaucho will find it 'too much' for him, should he get a verbatim translation of it from his friends, if he have any.

The auction sale at Moron on Sunday was attended by an immense gathering, for whom creature comforts in abundance were provided by the auctioneers. In our money article we refer to the pecuniary features of the sale.

An Irish gentleman, but a short time in the country, has favoured us with some lines on the Old and the New Year. Their unusual merit demands a relaxation of our rule excluding amateur poetry from the columns of the STANDARD and we publish them with pleasure.

Next Friday the feast of the Epiphany will be observed as a strict holiday. This anniversary was in former years the Feast of the Nativity, till the Calendar was altered in the 16th Century by Pope Gregory XIII. The Russians are the only people who still reject the Gregorian Calendar. In their records the battle of Inkerman is set down as fought on the 25th Oct. 1854.

We have to return our best thanks to a leading English house for a case of delicious beer sent to us yesterday as a New Year's gift. This present came at a most opportune moment, for the drain on our office cellar caused by the recent great heats has raised a most alarming muster of 'marines' in our back patio. With the assistance of the box of H. B. received on Saturday and this Younger's Pale Ale we hope to keep ourselves up to the mark next week for the La Plata's and John Elder's news, which are expected to be of a stunning character.

We comply with a pleasing duty in saluting our influential colleague, La República, on its attaining the fourth anniversary of its birth. No paper in the city is such an example of rapid and well deserved success.

Mr. Clark of the Transandine Telegraph Company has left Cordoba for Mendoza; Mr. Jardel remains in the former city for a few days.

From Rioja we learn that various epidemics are rife in that province, and that the prolonged 'seca' has caused great distress amongst the inhabitants engaged in rural pursuits.

Too much zeal in the discharge of their duties has never, that we know of, been laid to the charge of the Buenos Ayres metropolitan police constables; nevertheless, a friend of ours saw a vigilante some evenings back in warm controversy with a shopman who was watering the footway in front of his establishment, to lay the dust. The 'Bobby' insisted that the police, of which body he was the humblest member, had strict orders not to allow water to be thrown into the street. It took some time to convince the peace officer that the bye law in question refers to dirty water and not to the pellucid liquid supplied by our friend Sir John Coghlan.

Some private parties interested in the progress of the fine province of Corrientes are getting up a pamphlet which will make generally known to immigrants and others the great advantages offered to settlers from Europe and elsewhere by its fertile plains, fine rivers, forests, productions, and climate. A special number of this work will be sent to the Cordoba Exhibition.

For the first time for a lengthened period the Opera House was well attended on Sunday night, when Norma was performed, with Mdlle. Marchetti as the Druid heroine. During the night this gifted prima donna received in frequent and enthusiastic rounds of applause proofs of the high place she occupies in the estimation of our musical public. The remaining parts were very satisfactorily filled.

A cricket match is arranged to be played at Chascomus between the Southern Railway Club and Chascomus and District on Friday next, 6th inst. This event has been exciting much interest in the South, and the campmen will, doubtless, be well represented on the occasion. A close contest is anticipated.

Very unpleasant reports respecting the treatment to which some English sailors on board the Argentine war steamer Admiral Brown have been subjected have been afloat here for some days. The case was first mooted by Mephistopheles, correspondent in this city of the Tribuna of Montevideo. It is said that our countrymen have not received their pay for six months; that on refusing to serve any longer, unless paid, they were ordered on board the Espora, and there confined in irons for three weeks, and then sent to the 'cantones' to serve as soldiers. We are far from according implicit credence to the above; but as there is never smoke without fire, an immediate and strict investigation is called for.

An English schooner, the Arthurus, has just made the quickest trip from Liverpool to Rio Grande do Sul on record. The little vessel accomplished the voyage in 37 days from port to port.

There was unusually little news in our Montevidean exchanges received yesterday. The principal matter they contain is a 'rechauffé' of items from this city. Aparicio is still in the field, and the rebels and their doings form the chief staple of talk in the sister-city.

The Capital of Rosario has a stiff article in a late number on the rebellion in Entre Rios. Our colleague, which never hesitates to tell the truth, asserts that "the rebellion is fed and fostered from Buenos Ayres, and that Jordan is merely an instrument in the hands of abler wire pullers."

A much needed want is about being attended to by the Provincial Government. The present Immigration Asylum is utterly inadequate to afford such accommodation as is required by new arrivals, though the Commissioners have done admirably with the limited space now at their command. The Province has given a square of ground near the Northern Railway, on which a new Asylum will be erected, the National Government subscribing 40,000 hard dollars towards the work.

A dreadful fire occurred yesterday in Calle Peru in a caballeriza. Notwithstanding every effort to get combustible articles out of the way the fire spred with fearful rapidity, and a great quantity of property was destroyed. The casks from an adjoining distillery were rolled into the street to save them from the flames. Aguardiente was flowing about in torrents.

The calling out of the militia in Cordoba has taken a number of workmen from their labours on the Cordoba Exhibition building. It is, however, nearly finished, nothing remaining to be done but a little painting.

The Blancos state that the Coloradoos owe the capture of the eight guns which they took at the battle of Toledo to the fact that the young officer who commanded the battery, in the heat of the action, ordered the pieces too much to the front, where they stuck in a 'pantano' and could not be withdrawn in time, though heroic efforts were made by the Blancos to save them.

The shareholders of the Bank of Cuyo at their last meeting passed resolutions to augment the capital of the enterprise to half a million Bolivianos. 1800 additional shares of 100 dollars each will at once be offered to the shareholders and the public.

TERRIBLE CONFLAGRATION.

FIVE HOUSES BURNT.

Yesterday, one of the most disastrous fires that has occurred in this city for many years took place in Calle Peru, and notwithstanding every exertion the flames spread from house to house, until nearly half the block, where the fire originated, was destroyed.

About ½ to two o'clock in the afternoon the fire was first discovered in a stable-yard in Calle Peru. A lighted paper cigar, it appears, was thrown into some dry hay by a peon; the hay was soon in a blaze, and in ten minutes the stables were enveloped. The horses kicked and broke away, but it is thought some perished. The stable-yard was soon in one sheet of flame, and the wind being high, it communicated with a distillery alongside, which was at the time filled with pipes of caña and aguardiente.

In vain the police, the neighbours, and the people in the street essayed to limit the fire to the stable-yard, but it gained every instant, and the terrible report of the casks with the spirits as they caught the fire, appeared to be the discharges of heavy pieces of artillery.

The Police Fire Brigade worked well, but could do nothing. There was great bungling about the water supply, and when the stables were burnt down the water was found to put the flames out. Meanwhile the heat was so terrific, the wind so high, and the flames so triumphant, that the houses on the opposite side were in danger, and the panic and the flames spread. A house, ten yards from the distillery, took fire from the falling sparks, and was soon burnt down.

As we go to press, the flames continue, but with abated vigour; but the loss cannot be ascertained. A portion of the destroyed premises were insured in a native office.

Don Luis Varela, of the Tribuna, Hector Varela, Chief of Police O'Gorman, and several others distinguished themselves by their noble but ineffectual efforts to put out the fire.

BANDITTI IN CHILE.

The Ferro Carril furnishes the following particulars respecting the doings of a gang of bandits in the province of Curicó: "Persons recently arrived from the south have informed us of a robbery that took place last week at Chepica, in the province of Curicó. At that place there is an estate belonging to Señor Juan Estevan Valenzuela, a wealthy proprietor of that district. A gang of bandits, apparently recently organized in the country lying near to Curico, proposed to attack the house of Señor Valenzuela, who, as may naturally be supposed, was quite unprepared for such an event The bandits to the number of twenty or twenty-five having arranged their plans, proceeded to attack the house of Señor Valenzuela on Sunday night. It was alread past midnight, and, according to country custom, all the inmates were sound asleep. After beating in the front door, the bandits entered the house without meeting with any resistance.

In the first yard they found a servant sleeping under a corridor, whom, as a measure of precaution, some of the bandits proceeded to bind securely, while others invaded the rooms of the house and did the same with the rest of the inmates. Meanwhile, Señor Valenzuela, who had been awoke by the noise, escaped by a door and hid himself so successfully in a large vineyard that the bandits, although they diligently searched for him, were unable to find him. The burglars looked in vain for the money they expected to find, and threats with which they menaced the servants if they did not disclose the place where it was kept, met with no better result. Nevertheless, being absolute owners of the field, it was not to be expected that they would withdraw with empty hands. Each one seized what he liked, and in order to carry off the booty with greater facility, they provided themselves with the best and finest horses on the estate. They were just on the point of taking their departure, when the noise of horses coming along the road compelled them to remain silent, in order that they might escape being seen. Unfortunately, the horsemen who were nearing them were a young man named Valenzuela, belonging to the estate, and a friend of his, son of Don Manuel Diaz, who were returning home at that hour. As soon as they arrived near to the bandits the latter fired, and when the smoke had cleared away one of the young men was seen lying on the ground quite dead; the other, although seriously wounded in the head, was, thanks to his good mount, enabled to escape.

The bandits, after satisfying themselves that the young man was quite dead, quietly withdrew. They had not gone far, however, before they fell in with another youg fellow, who was also returning home. They immediately surrounded him, and after stripping him of his clothes, bound him hand and foot, and left him lying on the road. The bandits then proceeded to another house situated about a mile and a half from that of Sr. Valenzuela, where they demanded something to eat and drink, representing themselves to berural police. After partaking abundantly of wine, they resumed their march in the direction of a place called Lima, probably with the intention of taking the road to Curicó. They had scarcely left the place where they had caroused, when a servant of Señor Valenzuela, who had contrived to free himself, arrived there. After hastily recounting the doings of the bandits at his master's house, a party was formed, and a pursuit commenced.

On arriving at a pass at Lima, two of the party went ahead to explore the road. The bandits, perceiving that they were pursued, posted themselves among some trees near to creek, and the two explorers suddenly found themselves attacked in the rear. An unequal struggle then commenced, and one of the explorers was soon killed by a shot from a revolver; the other was also wounded, but he valiantly cut his way through the ranks of the bandits and rejoined the main party.

Shortly afterwards another landed proprietor of the district, Señor Juan de Dios Valenzuela, reinforced the party with his servants and such of the neighbors as he was able to collect together. After an exciting chase Sr. Valenzuela came up with one of the bandits, who, finding escape impossible, turned and fired upon his pursuer; but, fortunately the shot did not take effece. The bandit again pointed his revolver, but this time missed fire. Señor Valenzuela then fired, but without effect. The bandit, becoming desperate, then threw his pistols away, and drawing a dagger rushed on his pursuer, but the latter by skilfully manœuvring his horse escaped the attack, and raising his revolver fired, and this time with such good effect that the bandit was fain to deliver himself up a prisoner. Shortly afterwards another of the gang was captured, and at the date of latest advices the pursuit was still being kept up, and with every probability of success. | West Coast Mail.

AWFUL STORM AT PANAMA.

The stormy weather of the past week has resulted in one of the highest floods known on the Isthmus since the railroad was constructed.

On Saturday the water had risen in some places over the railroad track, and it was with difficulty that the afternoon train of that day hence to Aspinwall passed over. The water continued to rise during Sunday, and on Monday it was decided not to start the regular morning train from Aspinwall till the road was examined. The telegraph got out of order on Saturday afternoon and continued so till late on Monday, so that it was not possible to communicate with Panama. At half-past ten yesterday morning Mr Lee, the conductor, left Aspinwall in a locomotive to explore the track. A short distance this side of Gatun Station, he found the water too deep to allow of the locomotive proceeding further. He then took a flat car and a canoe with a gang of negroes and succeeded in reaching Mamei Station about four o'clock p.m., where the trains from this side were waiting on the switch for the expected morning train from Aspinwall to pass. Between Gatun and San Pablo Stations the track was submerged for at least eight miles, in many places to a depth of three or four feet. For three miles in succession the line of road was not visible; the entire country for miles around was a sheet of water, and the men pushing the car and hauling the canoe were up to the waists. It was impossible to distinguish the bridges from the other parts of the road, excepting by the stronger current, and knowledge of the locality in which they are.

Yesterday afternoon the water was falling, and as the strong wind on the coast has ceased, it is hoped the flood will have subsided sufficiently to-day to allow of a light train being despatched with mails, passengers, &c., to connect with the steamer for Southampton now waiting at Aspinwall. The streams are very much swollen along the entire line of road, and even should the rain cease, many days must elapse before the flood will have fully subsided.

The telegraph line was down, near Frijoli station. It was repaired yesterday afternoon.

We are gratified to hear that no serious damage of any kind either to the shipping or on shore was caused by the Norther, and that the report of loss of lives is not corroborated.—W Coast paper.

ARCTIC EXPLORATION.

"The Germania, of the Prussian exploring expedition to the North Pole, has returned."

The Germania has been absent during the greater part of the past two years, engaged in a voyage of polar exploration. Her report will no doubt be of a most interesting character and highly useful in its contents. This German expedition left Bergen, Norway, on Sunday, the 17th of May, in the year 1868, for the first time. It was commissioned to proceed to the eastern coast of Greenland, and there explore the Arctic regions north of the seventy-fifth degree of north latitude. The vessel in which the expedition sailed was the Germania, built expressly for the purpose. She is eighty tons burden, and carries the flag of the North German Bund. It returned and set out again. The commander of the expedition, Captain Charles Koldeway, was instructed to return to Bergen, if possible, in three to four months, but could not. The Germania, which M. Coveldez, the leader of the last expedition, purchased there, is one of those new Danish yachts specially constructed for polar voyages. She is furnished with beams and iron plates in a way to augment her powers of resistance. The flag of the Northern Confederation was displayed. The Germania measures eighty tons, and has a crew of fourteen men.

The propriety of fitting this last expedition for the North Pole was debated for a long time before any decision was come to. At length Dr. Peterman, the well known geographer at Gotha, from an ardent desire to solve some of the northern problems of his science, alone planned and despatched it. It seems, however, that his outlay will be partially made up to him, the King of Prussia having lately contributed 5,000 thalers, and other subscriptions, altogether wanting while the enterprise was in course of preparation, were beginning to flow in when it was about to be carried out. Capt. Koldewey, the commander, is a Hanoverian. He was to explore the eastern coast of Greenland from the seventy-fifth to the eightieth degree, and return, if possible, before the winter.

ON 'CHANGE.

Jan. 2, 1871.

|---|---|
| Ounces | 400 |
| Sovereigns | 122½ |
| Patacones | 25 |
| National Bonds | 65½ |

There were no transactions in Bonds to-day not a single sale on time or for cash. Some buyers were offering, but no sales effected. Sellers asked 65½; buyers offered 65⅜. There was a decidedly better feeling in the Bond market to-day; and the news from Santa Fe, received in the afternoon, was represented as highly favourable, the Entre Rianos having recrossed the Parana and returned to their own province, the attempt at revolution in Santa Fe having proved a most complete fiasco.

There was nothing done in exchange to-day, and no bills as yet offered for the packet, it is improbable that anything much will be done until the English mail comes in. Later dates from Rio report exchange up in that market, and closing on the 21st ult. at 24d. Sovereigns 10.209.

The news of a disastrous fire in Calle Peru reached the Bolsa to-day early, and most of the brokers left at once for the fire; it appears that it originated in an old stable yard and spread immediately to the adjoining premises, a distillery, where it made great havoc, the pipes of caña exploding like bombs, the wind blew the blazes up the street, the crowd was terrific.

Advices from the Banda Oriental this morning report the complete dissolution of the Blanco army, Aparicio having disbanded his men on a two months' furlough.

Tramway shares were in demand to-day, and several brokers had orders to buy; only one sale, 75 shares at 35 premium is reported.

The steamer Tycho Brahe arrived on Sunday in Montevideo; her dates are to the 30th Nov.; consequently she brings nothing fresh; she is due in port in the morning, No news of any importance from Europe is looked for until arrival of Royal Mail.

The firm of Cesario and Co., almacen line, is dissolved.

Mr. James Mohr Bell, formerly of Paysandu, has entered as partner in the firm of Edward Powell and Co.

The firm of Charles J. Shaw and Co. of Birmingham has opened a house here in the hardware line—Mr. E. Ward, with full powers as manager.

The Pascal cleared to-day, she took a heavy mail. Some exchange was passed for her; she takes several passengers and a good home cargo.

The new station of the Billinghurst tramway will be ready shortly, and the line finished to Almagro in a couple of weeks. The station has been erected at a cost of sixty thousand patacons; the fare to any part of the city of this line will be uniform—three dollars—and parties can travel from the Recoleta to the Plaza Once de Setiembre for three paper dollars. The report so current last week to the effect that Mr. Lacroze was about to reduce his fare to one dollar proves to be without the least foundation. The very high price paid for maize and hay precludes the possibility of any such reduction for the present, but, according to the municipal law, no tramway company can raise its fares, for twelve months after they have been published and imposed.

The auctions of real estate on Sunday gave varied results. LaRocha's auction was rather a failure, but Wehely & Gimenes sold all the land they offered alongside the race-course at Moron at really splendid prices; the land, it appears, was bought two years ago for 72,000 m/c, resold for 172,000 m/c, and now at the auction on Sunday realised over 400,000 m/c; this shows the great rise in that class of property.

The liquidation of the month's accounts in the Bond market passed off remarkably well. As a rule buyers who purchased for a rise were obliged to take up their bonds and carry them over, but the bears after all made a very poor month's business; and many lost heavily. As positive news is expected of the loan by the packet, and as advices from Sta. Fe are of a decidedly more favorable character, bondholders refuse to sell at present prices; the result is that bonds are scarce and the market very firm.

The loss of a Spanish barque bound for the Plate with an assorted cargo is reported on the coast of Brazil.

The Caldera arrived at Montevideo on Saturday, and left for Europe on Sunday. She was detained in the Straits by contrary winds, and took in bad coal at Punta Arenas. The Caldera's mails arrived up on Sunday morning.

The auctioneering firm of Varela and Hidalgo is dissolved by mutual consent.

Mr. John Campbell, who has for some time held full powers and letters of attorney from the firm of Barbour, Barclay & Co. of this plaza, was this day admitted as partner in said firm; the name, style and firm remain the same, Barbour Barclay & Co.

There was very stirring news from Santa Fé to-day. Advices from the Uruguay report the Minister of War at Concepcion there to remain until the end of the war. All the rumours about troubles in Cordoba turn out to be without the least foundation, and the Entre Rianos have all returned to their own province.

The Calle Defensa tramway will shortly be opened to the public. It appears that it will not go to the Boca owing to a difficulty about the Boca road, but will run down through the 'potreros' to the Barraca de Peña and run from thence to the Tres Esquinas. The rails in Calle Peru are now laid to the University at the Old Market.

Wool markets still rule very dull. Mr. Harratt's wool was sold to-day in the South market at 42. Fully three-fourths of the wool coming in goes to deposit. Our special reporter, North Plaza, gives the following—

SCROFULA IS THE PROTEUS OF DISEASES.—Now it develops itself in the flesh; now on the skin, sometimes in the glands, sometimes in the muscles. Its locale in one instance is the throat, in another the eyes, in the third the scalp; in fact, there is no portion of the body which may not be the seat of this awful malady. But it can be dislodged from each and all. How? inquires some agonized victim. We answer by the persevering use of Jayne's Alterative. If this is doubted, let the skeptic read the testimonials of those who have been restored to health by its use, and which may be found at length in our Almanac. REMITTENT FEVERS.— No medicine that does not operate specifically upon the liver is of any real use in bilious remittent fevers. The old practice was to give large doses of calomel; but a safer and surer remedy has been discovered. Podophyllin and Leptandrin, two botanical substances, effect the desired object with greater certainty that mercury, and leave no sting behind. These two medicinal blessings are combined in the exact proportion necessary to produce the most salutary effect possible, in Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills. Wherever remittent fever, or any febrile disease arising from malaria prevails, they should be kept on hand as a family medicine, and resorted to when the first symptoms of biliary derangement appear. 22

PROGRESS.
LAS MENSAGERIAS DEL PUERTO
Now consists of five steamers, all constructed for, and specially adapted to the harbor work, such as the landing of passengers, parcels, and baggage, and for towage and special trips in the harbor, or to Colonia, Tigre, the Islands, or, in fact, to any more distant point.
It will be the Manager's special endeavour to give entire satisfaction to those who may employ the steamers, and, as he can scarcely believe any one will hesitate between sail and steam, when the tariff is about the same, he may reasonably expect a good portion of the harbor work.
One of the steamers will leave the Mole daily at 7 a.m, and one will remain in the Outer Roads, for the accommodation of Ship Captains arriving.
The Steamers will always be ready by Day or Night, and the terms are about the same as the whaleboat tariff.
For further particulars apply to the Manager, No. 69 Paseo Julio, by day. No. 160 Juncal, by night. 394 xp d28

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA AND Co.
101--Cangallo--103

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts-Current we now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artizans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated, on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense services to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P. P. MAUA & Co.,

M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. p. ⅏ per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds Twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishe can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

Oh! Christmas is coming, on which we are bent,
On the English Bazaar let us make a descent.

Oh! Christmas is coming, with all its delight,
We'll go in for fun from morning till night:
It's the time of the year we do all we can;
To buy something nice for child, woman, and man.

Oh! Christmas is coming, I do declare,
The New Year, in addition, will soon be here:
Every article kept at the English Bazaar,
Can be sent to your house in a tramway car.

Come on, then, my friends; John, Pat, and Sandy,
In this noted Bazar you'll find what is handy;
Electro-plate ware, chairs, tables, and knives,
Just the thing for your daughters, sweethearts or wives.

VILLA SARMIENTO

A Suburb of Cordoba.

Building Lots $1.100 each.

This charming suburb commands a fine view of the city of Cordoba in the low ground and the Sierras in the distance. It is proposed to establish here the new water-works of the Anisacate Aqueduct as projected by the Engineer of the Province, Col. Thomson.

The air is peculiarly salubrious and invigorating, and the site is destined to be one of the favorite summer-residences in the Republic. Villa Sarmiento comprises 70 cuadras (or 140 acres) half of which are already taken by English merchants and native families of Buenos Ayres.

There are two plazas, called Colon and 25 de Mayo, and th streets are 20 yards wide. The blocks are 100x100 varas, and each lot for building is 20x50, price $1.100.

With the growing importance of Cordoba this locality will rise greatly in value, and the site is so well suited for country houses, coupled with the abundanbe of lime and timber, that families can have a delightful residence, within 2 days journey of Buenos Ayres, at a mere nominal cost.

FIRST GRAND DRAWING,
DECEMBER 30th, 1870.

Economy being the secret of wealth, the POPULAR ARGENTINA addresses itself to people of every walk in life, and its advantages and securities are admitted on all hands. The first issue of Bonds will close shortly.

The first Grand Drawing comes off December 30th, 1870.

The Prizes to be drawn will constitute an independent fortune, and will be in proportion to the number of Bonds disposed of.

The public subscriptions cannot be better guaranteed, since the amount has to be deposited in the Provincial Government Treasury, by the Inspector. At the expiration of the term expressed on each Bond or Share, the subscriber gets back the full amount, whether or not he may have drawn any of the annual prizes. For instance, a man who subscribes $50 m|c. may come in for a splendid fortune; but, in any event, his money is returned to him in the end.

Every year there will be a Drawing on December 30th, when the holder of a 10 SHARE MAY DRAW £50,000 STERLING.

Working men will thus be induced to save their earnings, since if they fail to draw a prize they will get all their money back in the end, and praise the wise arrangement in which public morality and the chance of gain are combined.

Subscribers taking Shares to the amount of $100 f., may at any time renounce their chance of the annual prizes by converting their shares into Bonds, bearing 10 per cent interest per annum, with Coupons attached payable quarterly.

Subscribers may also at any time sell their tickets, which are all payable to bearer.

The Drawing of Prizes will take place in presence of the Government Inspector, the Board of Directors, Manager, and a Public Notary.

Hennessy's Brandy

The undersigned beg to inform the Public, that they have concluded arrangements with Messrs. JAMES HENNESSY and CO., To receive regular and constant supplies of their well-known Brands of Cognac.

The first shipment has arrived, per "Soffren," and is now on Sale.

This Brandy is so well known, and so fully appreciated by the English Consumers, that anything we could say to recommend it would be superfluous, and we would therefore simply draw attention to the following Table of Exports of Cognac from Charente to Great Britain, for the twelve months ending the 30th of June 1869:—

| | Puncheons. | Cases. |
|---|---|---|
| James Hennessy and Co.... | 9,452 | 214,885 |
| Martell ..... | 8,310 | 113,664 |
| Otard, Dupuy, and Co. .... | 2,668 | 8,511 |
| Jules Duret and Co. ..... | 456 | 6,371 |
| Jules Robin and Co..... | 366 | 6.247 |
| Sundries..... | 13,034 | 198,042 |
| Total..... | 34,316 | 547,740 |

For the year ending 21st December, 1869 Hennessy exported to Great Britain 10,513 Puncheons, and 282,768 Cases, being more than a third part of the total exports for the same destination.

In Great Britain, in Australia, and in India Hennessy's Brandy commands the preference, and fetches a higher price than any other Brand.

As a protection against falsifications, our name is attached to Messrs. Hennessy's Trade Label.
